

Canada's Celebration of Freedom and Diversity

Media Accreditation

Media accreditation will be available for all working media for all official events. No accreditation is required for free admission events and no special privileges will apply.

All electronic recording or taping of the official events is specifically for the use of Entertainment/ news only. Any documentation of events used in any other capacity will be of unlawful use unless agreed to by the Festival Management Committee in advance.

It is the responsibility of the accredited Photographers/videographers to get relevant model releases from event Participants. Drone use at the Parade, King and Queen competition and Pan Alive is strictly prohibited by Federal laws (because of proximity to Billy Bishop Airport)

 Unaffiliated photographers and videographers may be assessed a $250 service charge.
